

EXTRA VANDAL!

A 10 to 1 Surprise in Linden's Second Race.

CHESAPEAKE GOT THE FIRST.

The Third Only a Walk-over Match for Raymond G.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) LINDEN RACE TRACK, N. J., Nov. 14.—The news that the Linden Association had been convicted this morning of keeping a disorderly house, and a goodly number of people having connection with the track, was on trial, his case being moved immediately after the Linden verdict had been rendered. But all this did not stop the racing and speculation went on as usual. The track was still heavy, notwithstanding two days' rain and constant hawking; yet it was in an improved state over the day before. In the first race, Chesapeake, on account of the heavy going, was made a favorite. Al Farrow, notwithstanding he cannot run in the mud, was made second choice, and Young Grace third. The favorite won very easily, young Covington sending him to the front on the far turn and leading to the end. Young Grace beat Chesapeake for the place. Prince James was thought to be the good thing in the second race, with Dundee out, and he was installed first choice at even money. Dundee had the most and thus the second race was given. Dundee, who had been seen for a long time, was made second choice on the strength of some fast work. (Of the race, the favorite was made a favorite. The winner turned up in Vandal, a 10 to 1 shot, who beat Masterode and Squander. The third race resolved itself into a match between Raymond G. and Dundee. So early were the bookies convinced that the former would win that they offered only 1 to 2 against him. Against Dundee they laid 2 to 1, and as no one seemed to care for the latter, the odds were offered 1 to 1. Dundee won the race, and Raymond G. went to the front soon after the start and won the race. The judges announced that Jockey Stoval had pulled Major Daly in the second race, and that they had ruled Stoval out of the turf. This was Stoval's first offense.

FIRST RACE.
Handicap, at seven furlongs. — Betting: —
Starters: White, Jockers, Straight, Place.
1 Vandal..... 10 to 1
2 Masterode..... 10 to 1
3 Dundee..... 2 to 1
4 Young Grace..... 10 to 1
5 Chesapeake..... 10 to 1
6 Prince James..... 10 to 1
7 Al Farrow..... 10 to 1
8 Major Daly..... 10 to 1
9 Stoval..... 10 to 1
10 Jockey Stoval..... 10 to 1
Vandal won easily by two lengths from Masterode, who beat Squander four lengths. Time—1:33.

SECOND RACE.
Handicap, at seven furlongs. — Betting: —
Starters: White, Jockers, Straight, Place.
1 Chesapeake..... 10 to 1
2 Al Farrow..... 10 to 1
3 Young Grace..... 10 to 1
4 Prince James..... 10 to 1
5 Dundee..... 10 to 1
6 Masterode..... 10 to 1
7 Squander..... 10 to 1
8 Major Daly..... 10 to 1
9 Stoval..... 10 to 1
10 Jockey Stoval..... 10 to 1
Chesapeake won easily by two lengths from Al Farrow, who beat Young Grace four lengths. Time—1:33.

THIRD RACE.
Handicap, at seven furlongs. — Betting: —
Starters: White, Jockers, Straight, Place.
1 Dundee..... 10 to 1
2 Raymond G..... 10 to 1
3 Vandal..... 10 to 1
4 Masterode..... 10 to 1
5 Young Grace..... 10 to 1
6 Chesapeake..... 10 to 1
7 Prince James..... 10 to 1
8 Al Farrow..... 10 to 1
9 Major Daly..... 10 to 1
10 Jockey Stoval..... 10 to 1
Dundee won easily by two lengths from Raymond G., who beat Vandal four lengths. Time—1:33.

FOURTH RACE.
Selling, for two-year-olds, six furlongs. — Betting: —
Starters: White, Jockers, Straight, Place.
1 Graylock..... 10 to 1
2 Tremblow..... 10 to 1
3 Graylock..... 10 to 1
4 Tremblow..... 10 to 1
5 Graylock..... 10 to 1
6 Tremblow..... 10 to 1
7 Graylock..... 10 to 1
8 Tremblow..... 10 to 1
9 Graylock..... 10 to 1
10 Tremblow..... 10 to 1
Graylock won easily by two lengths from Tremblow, who beat Graylock four lengths. Time—1:33.

EXTRA BIRCHALL DEAD.

Hanged This Morning for the Murder of Benwell.

He Went Unflinchingly to His Inghomious Fate.

Kissed a Friend Good-By and Shook the Hangman's Hand.

A Denial Left to Forestall any Stories of a Confession.

The Murderer's Last, Tenderest Thoughts Were for His Wife.

(BY DIRECT WIRE FROM WOODSTOCK TO EVENING WORLD EDITORIAL ROOM.) Woodstock, Ont., Nov. 14.—Alex Birchall was hanged at the jail here this morning for the murder of Frederick C. Benwell. The weight fell at 8:30. The condemned man met his fate unflinchingly, as he had promised he would do. With a smile on his face the young man bade to the crowd of English minister, and returned to his cell. The hanging was first set down for 9 o'clock, but by Birchall's own request it was done a half an hour earlier. After he breakfasted he sat in his cell, smoking cigars and chatting with the old sheriff, Perry.

The latter was solemn; Birchall was not. He seemed to have an announcement in the fact of the old sheriff's sorrow for him. "I'm sorry for you, my lad," the sheriff once remarked. "Then you needn't be," Birchall replied. He turned the end of his black moustache, pulled his cigar again, stretched out his limbs, and went to sleep. "Well, they can't do it now too soon to suit me." "Are there many people inside?" he asked of the Rev. Mr. Wade, when the latter had entered the cell. "No, not very many."

Just before the black cap was adjusted there was a sort of far-away, indecipherable look in his eyes, which replaced a slight weariness of expression that had been on his face. The clergyman kissed his cheek to whom he had become sincerely attached, before he stepped back to give place to the hangman. Aged sheriff Perry had to be supported at the door of the corridor overlooking the yard where the execution took place, so completely was he overcome by the excitement and suspense of the moment. His sturdy son and deputy, George Perry, walked firmly by the prisoner's side to the gallows.

The Murderer's Last Night.
(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) Woodstock, Ont., Nov. 14.—The EVENING WORLD reporter was the only newspaper representative who sat up with Birchall last night. The condemned man sat smoking cigars, swinging his feet off the round table which is the only piece of furniture in his room, coolly discussing the event of to-day. "They think I'll commit suicide"—a suggestion of a quiver in his voice. "I won't. I would if it would put any money in my wife's pocket, she's all I've got. All I've ever had to take care of me. She's stood to me through good and bad. I love her and I would do anything in my power to-night to see that she was left well provided for."

The picture was a striking one. A lonely cell, a man who was about to die, smoking a cigar, placidly contemplating his coming execution. The wind was blowing through the big glass windows surrounding the jail, shrilly and solemnly. Chief of police Wiles took the prisoner's hand and said: "Birchall, I'm sorry for you." "I don't need your pity, but if you are a friend of mine, take care of my wife." When the reporter was about to leave him, Birchall said: "There's no confession to make. If there was, I would give it to you. I would like to go to New York with you, but I can't." He finished with a laugh.

EXTRA THE TURF.

An Inquiry on Blue Jeans—What on Ballyhoo?

STRIDEAWAY BROKEN DOWN.

Programmes Out for the Clifton Opening.

The judges at Linden yesterday woke from one tip Van Winkle state into which they have fallen and became convinced that at least one horse in the last race did not run as he should have done. The horse was Blue Jeans, and the further the horse ran the further he was beaten, which was remarkable considering the form he had shown at Washington. The wide-awake and zealous judges called it. The jockey who rode Blue Jeans, into the stand, and, gravely informed him that his case would be investigated in the morning. But it is the running of Blue Jeans was crooked now as the judges reconcile the running of Ballyhoo at Linden yesterday and the running of Sluggard at Elizabeth. There must be some explanation for this kind of running. The hundreds of race-goers can find none, and they think some performance worthy of inquiry. If the judge has reasons which justify his running it might be just as well to make them public and let the great mass of race-goers see their minds.

Jack Foster fell in the last race at Nashville yesterday, and it is feared that he will be out of the saddle for some time. Priscoe Edwards was a good thing yesterday. He was steadily preoccupied considering the race he had tried to win yesterday, and his own people got ahead. They got away odds, and Priscoe Edwards won very easily.

August Belmont has re-negated his promise to the Clifton Association. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Lambly tried to ride Vainly today with both Leon Bloom and Leno yesterday, but did not succeed in getting his mount first after the way in either race. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Capt. Killian, of the West Forty-seventh street police station, has got himself into a neck of trouble. At their meeting this afternoon the Police Commissioners instructed Acting Sgt. Byrne to prefer charges against Capt. Killian for making a false report in regard to the Sixth Avenue Hotel, Sixth Avenue and Forty-fourth street, and also for his testimony before the Police Investigating Committee and before the Excise Board in relation to the hotel. He reported that the hotel was an orderly place and that there were no reasons why it should not be licensed.

EXTRA THE TURF.

STRIDEAWAY BROKEN DOWN.

Programmes Out for the Clifton Opening.

The judges at Linden yesterday woke from one tip Van Winkle state into which they have fallen and became convinced that at least one horse in the last race did not run as he should have done. The horse was Blue Jeans, and the further the horse ran the further he was beaten, which was remarkable considering the form he had shown at Washington. The wide-awake and zealous judges called it. The jockey who rode Blue Jeans, into the stand, and, gravely informed him that his case would be investigated in the morning. But it is the running of Blue Jeans was crooked now as the judges reconcile the running of Ballyhoo at Linden yesterday and the running of Sluggard at Elizabeth. There must be some explanation for this kind of running. The hundreds of race-goers can find none, and they think some performance worthy of inquiry. If the judge has reasons which justify his running it might be just as well to make them public and let the great mass of race-goers see their minds.

Jack Foster fell in the last race at Nashville yesterday, and it is feared that he will be out of the saddle for some time. Priscoe Edwards was a good thing yesterday. He was steadily preoccupied considering the race he had tried to win yesterday, and his own people got ahead. They got away odds, and Priscoe Edwards won very easily.

August Belmont has re-negated his promise to the Clifton Association. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Lambly tried to ride Vainly today with both Leon Bloom and Leno yesterday, but did not succeed in getting his mount first after the way in either race. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Capt. Killian, of the West Forty-seventh street police station, has got himself into a neck of trouble. At their meeting this afternoon the Police Commissioners instructed Acting Sgt. Byrne to prefer charges against Capt. Killian for making a false report in regard to the Sixth Avenue Hotel, Sixth Avenue and Forty-fourth street, and also for his testimony before the Police Investigating Committee and before the Excise Board in relation to the hotel. He reported that the hotel was an orderly place and that there were no reasons why it should not be licensed.

EXTRA THE TURF.

STRIDEAWAY BROKEN DOWN.

Programmes Out for the Clifton Opening.

The judges at Linden yesterday woke from one tip Van Winkle state into which they have fallen and became convinced that at least one horse in the last race did not run as he should have done. The horse was Blue Jeans, and the further the horse ran the further he was beaten, which was remarkable considering the form he had shown at Washington. The wide-awake and zealous judges called it. The jockey who rode Blue Jeans, into the stand, and, gravely informed him that his case would be investigated in the morning. But it is the running of Blue Jeans was crooked now as the judges reconcile the running of Ballyhoo at Linden yesterday and the running of Sluggard at Elizabeth. There must be some explanation for this kind of running. The hundreds of race-goers can find none, and they think some performance worthy of inquiry. If the judge has reasons which justify his running it might be just as well to make them public and let the great mass of race-goers see their minds.

Jack Foster fell in the last race at Nashville yesterday, and it is feared that he will be out of the saddle for some time. Priscoe Edwards was a good thing yesterday. He was steadily preoccupied considering the race he had tried to win yesterday, and his own people got ahead. They got away odds, and Priscoe Edwards won very easily.

August Belmont has re-negated his promise to the Clifton Association. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Lambly tried to ride Vainly today with both Leon Bloom and Leno yesterday, but did not succeed in getting his mount first after the way in either race. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Capt. Killian, of the West Forty-seventh street police station, has got himself into a neck of trouble. At their meeting this afternoon the Police Commissioners instructed Acting Sgt. Byrne to prefer charges against Capt. Killian for making a false report in regard to the Sixth Avenue Hotel, Sixth Avenue and Forty-fourth street, and also for his testimony before the Police Investigating Committee and before the Excise Board in relation to the hotel. He reported that the hotel was an orderly place and that there were no reasons why it should not be licensed.

EXTRA THE TURF.

STRIDEAWAY BROKEN DOWN.

Programmes Out for the Clifton Opening.

The judges at Linden yesterday woke from one tip Van Winkle state into which they have fallen and became convinced that at least one horse in the last race did not run as he should have done. The horse was Blue Jeans, and the further the horse ran the further he was beaten, which was remarkable considering the form he had shown at Washington. The wide-awake and zealous judges called it. The jockey who rode Blue Jeans, into the stand, and, gravely informed him that his case would be investigated in the morning. But it is the running of Blue Jeans was crooked now as the judges reconcile the running of Ballyhoo at Linden yesterday and the running of Sluggard at Elizabeth. There must be some explanation for this kind of running. The hundreds of race-goers can find none, and they think some performance worthy of inquiry. If the judge has reasons which justify his running it might be just as well to make them public and let the great mass of race-goers see their minds.

Jack Foster fell in the last race at Nashville yesterday, and it is feared that he will be out of the saddle for some time. Priscoe Edwards was a good thing yesterday. He was steadily preoccupied considering the race he had tried to win yesterday, and his own people got ahead. They got away odds, and Priscoe Edwards won very easily.

August Belmont has re-negated his promise to the Clifton Association. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Lambly tried to ride Vainly today with both Leon Bloom and Leno yesterday, but did not succeed in getting his mount first after the way in either race. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Capt. Killian, of the West Forty-seventh street police station, has got himself into a neck of trouble. At their meeting this afternoon the Police Commissioners instructed Acting Sgt. Byrne to prefer charges against Capt. Killian for making a false report in regard to the Sixth Avenue Hotel, Sixth Avenue and Forty-fourth street, and also for his testimony before the Police Investigating Committee and before the Excise Board in relation to the hotel. He reported that the hotel was an orderly place and that there were no reasons why it should not be licensed.

EXTRA THE TURF.

STRIDEAWAY BROKEN DOWN.

Programmes Out for the Clifton Opening.

The judges at Linden yesterday woke from one tip Van Winkle state into which they have fallen and became convinced that at least one horse in the last race did not run as he should have done. The horse was Blue Jeans, and the further the horse ran the further he was beaten, which was remarkable considering the form he had shown at Washington. The wide-awake and zealous judges called it. The jockey who rode Blue Jeans, into the stand, and, gravely informed him that his case would be investigated in the morning. But it is the running of Blue Jeans was crooked now as the judges reconcile the running of Ballyhoo at Linden yesterday and the running of Sluggard at Elizabeth. There must be some explanation for this kind of running. The hundreds of race-goers can find none, and they think some performance worthy of inquiry. If the judge has reasons which justify his running it might be just as well to make them public and let the great mass of race-goers see their minds.

Jack Foster fell in the last race at Nashville yesterday, and it is feared that he will be out of the saddle for some time. Priscoe Edwards was a good thing yesterday. He was steadily preoccupied considering the race he had tried to win yesterday, and his own people got ahead. They got away odds, and Priscoe Edwards won very easily.

August Belmont has re-negated his promise to the Clifton Association. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Lambly tried to ride Vainly today with both Leon Bloom and Leno yesterday, but did not succeed in getting his mount first after the way in either race. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Capt. Killian, of the West Forty-seventh street police station, has got himself into a neck of trouble. At their meeting this afternoon the Police Commissioners instructed Acting Sgt. Byrne to prefer charges against Capt. Killian for making a false report in regard to the Sixth Avenue Hotel, Sixth Avenue and Forty-fourth street, and also for his testimony before the Police Investigating Committee and before the Excise Board in relation to the hotel. He reported that the hotel was an orderly place and that there were no reasons why it should not be licensed.

EXTRA THE TURF.

STRIDEAWAY BROKEN DOWN.

Programmes Out for the Clifton Opening.

The judges at Linden yesterday woke from one tip Van Winkle state into which they have fallen and became convinced that at least one horse in the last race did not run as he should have done. The horse was Blue Jeans, and the further the horse ran the further he was beaten, which was remarkable considering the form he had shown at Washington. The wide-awake and zealous judges called it. The jockey who rode Blue Jeans, into the stand, and, gravely informed him that his case would be investigated in the morning. But it is the running of Blue Jeans was crooked now as the judges reconcile the running of Ballyhoo at Linden yesterday and the running of Sluggard at Elizabeth. There must be some explanation for this kind of running. The hundreds of race-goers can find none, and they think some performance worthy of inquiry. If the judge has reasons which justify his running it might be just as well to make them public and let the great mass of race-goers see their minds.

Jack Foster fell in the last race at Nashville yesterday, and it is feared that he will be out of the saddle for some time. Priscoe Edwards was a good thing yesterday. He was steadily preoccupied considering the race he had tried to win yesterday, and his own people got ahead. They got away odds, and Priscoe Edwards won very easily.

August Belmont has re-negated his promise to the Clifton Association. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Lambly tried to ride Vainly today with both Leon Bloom and Leno yesterday, but did not succeed in getting his mount first after the way in either race. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many. The Clifton Association has issued a program for the coming season. A number of improvements have been made to improve the race, of which there are many.

Capt. Killian, of the West Forty-seventh street police station, has got himself into a neck of trouble. At their meeting this afternoon the Police Commissioners instructed Acting Sgt. Byrne to prefer charges against Capt. Killian for making a false report in regard to the Sixth Avenue Hotel, Sixth Avenue and Forty-fourth street, and also for his testimony before the Police Investigating Committee and before the Excise Board in relation to the hotel. He reported that the hotel was an orderly place and that there were no reasons why it should not be licensed.